

THE BIRTH OF A NEW HUMANITY

June 6, 2010

The following is my response to the questions from the May 26th, 2010 broadcast THE BIRTH OF A NEW HUMANITY.

While I can't possibly answer all of the questions that were submitted I will do my best. I have compiled those that seemed the most important and those that were on-topic.

Here goes - I hope that what follows helps you to understand the nature of this amazing transformation in human consciousness that is emerging as we speak. It may look terrible in the outer world and even hopeless, but in the inner world of human consciousness, a global birthday party is being planned. YOU are about to become a baby on a new level of Life.

Q    What dimension will we be in when we make this transition?

A    This is a very complicated question - because we don't know exactly how Mother Earth is going to unfold this drama. She is always considering all life on this planet, including the humans, and because of this, there are many things that could happen. But I can talk about some of those possibilities.

Most people see us now in the 3rd dimension, but others see and know that we are already in the 4th dimension and about to enter the 5th dimension.

What I have discovered in my life is that Mother Earth transitioned into the 4th dimension in the year 1999, but used the potential of this new dimension to recreate what appears to be the old 3rd dimension. Why? Simply to buy us time because she loves us. Most of the world was not ready for this kind of consciousness transformation, and living these few extra years in a familiar consciousness allows us to transition easier. Think about it. Would you have listened to this broadcast eleven years ago?

Look at the new Super Psychic Children around the world. The reason they can do the incredible things they are doing is because they can access the 4th dimension that surrounds us all. So can we, but most of us don't know it.

Nevertheless, when Mother Earth sends us consciously into the 4th dimension, it will be a huge surprise for everyone who is unaware. That transition usually takes place either directly before or during the physical pole shift. It rarely happens shortly after a shift.

Q You said that the Great Pyramid in Egypt was built from the top down and that it only took about two hours. How could anyone carbon date this accurately?

A Perhaps I was not clear. The entire system of pyramids, temples, churches, monasteries, etc., (but of course the natural aspects such as lakes and volcanoes were already there) were built and constructed on the 4th dimension first. This is actually how almost everything arrives on Earth.

Further, you need to know that time is different on each dimensional level. Time in the 3rd dimension is what we experience; but a short amount of 3rd dimensional time is a very long time in the 4th dimension. A few hours here is more like a hundred years in the 4th dimension. I not sure exactly how long it is, but it is something like that in my experience.

So what I meant to say is that the Great Pyramid, the first building of this amazing system, was built on the 4th dimension first and then transposed to the 3rd dimension, but not in the way all of the rest of the approximately 83,000 structures were built; which were by normal means but guided by higher consciousness. Further, the Great Pyramid's construction process does not relate to anything that modern science would consider to be normal, or even plausible. In other words, science could not explain this particular building because it was human consciousness on a 4th dimensional level that directed its construction.

Q How does Lemuria play a role in all of this?

A Lemuria is not directly related to what was happening on Atlantis since Lemuria no longer existed at that time. Actually, there were, and still are some islands that are remnants of Lemuria - such as Kauai in Hawaii, and Easter Island which we discussed in the broadcast, and many others - but the continent itself was gone when all of this happened. However, most of the people on Atlantis were from Lemuria. Lemuria sank about 65,000 years ago, long before this Atlantean event, which happened less than 13,000 years ago.

Q What happens to the old grid that we are now on? Do some stay on this grid and others go on to the new grid?

A There is great speculation about this among the indigenous people as well as the spiritual leaders of the world. All I can give you is what I understand.

The majority of the Native Americans believe that most of the people on Earth, when this happens, will die and then leave the Earth and travel back to the stars where they came from. From there the transformation will be easier for them.

Then the remaining people, who the Native Americans call the people of "One Heart", will become one people, all breathing in unison. They literally will become one living being, though living all over the body of the Earth. From there, we will begin to transform into a new humanity.

From a Melchizedek Consciousness point of view, there is much more occurring on a Universal level than what most people on Earth are aware of. The Maya prophesize about the cycles of time, but these cycles are all based upon the solar system and our galaxy. We know that when the Precession of the Equinox comes to an end, a much bigger cosmic cycle will be ending at precisely the same time - and this cycle is going to change everything - including the entire world's prophecies about what is approaching us.

This is a subject that will have to wait until another time. But in a nutshell, the old grid and the entire planet, and all the rest of the 3rd dimensional universe is about to be returned into the void. This is not a "bad" event. Humanity is about to evolve into a form of consciousness that is beyond our imagination and begin anew in a way that is completely beyond human words. It is a gift from the Source.

Q Will we remember the higher consciousness that existed at the time of Atlantis within the high priests of the time? Will we then connect to Mother Earth from this place?

A Remembering higher consciousness and connecting to Mother Earth are interconnected. From this point of awareness, the beginning of the human consciousness journey will take its' first step into the possibilities of Life.

Q In the fourth dimension will we keep our memory and will our children stay with us?

A Memory is the key to higher consciousness. When a being becomes immortal, it is NOT that they live in their present body forever – confined in a bodily prison. We will always eventually outgrow any physical form we take and need and want to move on. What it means is the memories of all past lives are remembered and there is no longer a break in the memory stream. That is being immortal. All of us that become the One Living Being here on Earth after the transition will definitely become immortal beings.

We reincarnate after each lifetime simply because we don't know how to die consciously. This was caused by the Atlantian "problem". Now we die here on Earth and then move on to the 4th dimension. Once there, we lose our memories of being human. We live our life there and then die in the 4th dimension and are reborn back into the 3rd dimension, and we lose our memories of our 4th dimensional lifetime and so on. We keep making this cycle over and over again until we learn to die consciously. Once we do that, we never “die” again, meaning our memories remain intact.

Will our children stay with us? That is up to each person. Yes, they are our children, but they do not belong to us. They belong to themselves and the universe, and it is their choice.

We very often do travel throughout the universe in groups. This is sometimes called a “soul group”. These groups average about 32 people, I have found. One lifetime you are the mother or father and they are your son or daughter. The next lifetime they are the parents and you are their children. It can become more complicated than this, but you get the idea. But everyone is free to start a new cycle if they choose.

Q Are there those that are so-called “forerunners” in this process and can they assist others or is everyone in the same space and assured of going with the New Grid of Mother Earth?

A There are most definitely forerunners of this new consciousness. A few came in very early. I was one of them and my body was born in January of 1941 although I walked in to this body on April 10, 1972. The wave of children began in January of 1972. The first Super Psychic Child was discovered scientifically in China in 1974. He could see with his ears better than you can see with your eyes. Now it is almost 100% of all children being born on Earth are not from Earth, and are becoming human for the first time. They bring with them memories and knowledge of advanced consciousness, which helps all of us to reach into higher states of being. These first children, who are now adults, can and will help the rest of humanity as the events unfold.

If you are one of those beings and you know it, just wait. Your time will come when you are needed and appreciated for who you are. Thank you for coming to this little planet in the middle of nowhere.

Q How do we change consciousness? Do we remain in the form we have now? How does this shift change us, our lives, and the world?

A The transformation from 3rd dimensional human consciousness to 4th dimensional human consciousness is described in detail in my second book, The Ancient Secret of the Flower of Life, Volume II.

But quickly, you will be lead through a truly amazing series of consciousness movements and experiences. The pathway is already recorded in your DNA. You do not have to learn anything for it is completely a remembering process. Once you have fully entered the 4th dimension, the biggest problem is the fact, which almost everyone on Earth now does not understand, that YOU are literally creating everything in your world. Yes, you are the Creator. Unfortunately I cannot explain this in detail within this format as it is too complicated.

In this new world you are a baby, and as long as you stay in love and see beauty all around you everything is fine, for that is what you will create. But if you go into fear, then whatever you fear will manifest - and it will devour you and send you back to the 3rd dimensional world that you just left. From there you will be sent to another part of the universe to finish your growth process. There is no heaven or hell. There is only what you create.

It is so important to be fearless, and to know that you are the Son or Daughter of the Source of Creation. When you know that, the consciousness transformation is not only easy, but extremely pleasurable. Trust and believe in yourself, and you will see the truth of who you really are.

Q How can we help ourselves in our daily lives? Shall we leave our modern lives? Should we meditate? Is there something very specific to do?

A For myself, I live in two worlds. The first is the everyday world that we all know and I live as though that world will always exist. I pay my bills and I love and take care of my family and help the world in every way I can. I plan for the future as though life on Earth will go on forever. In ancient times it was expressed by the phrase, "Carry water and chop wood."

But at the same time, I know what is coming, and I prepare inwardly. There is little you can do in the outer world that will be of any real significance during this change. To dig a hole in the ground and store food and water is not a bad thing to do, but realize that it is not really going to help the moment that you go inter-dimensional.

Meditation is the most important activity that you can be engaged in. Meditation is not just staring into darkness, but much, much more. Becoming a Self-realized being is the goal, and loving and helping people to remember themselves and being of service to the world is the only outer purpose that creates character. This will assist you as you enter higher consciousness.

Live in your heart, not your mind. Connect your love coming from your heart with the heart of the Earth. THIS IS THE KEY. The Maya believe you must also connect your heart to the heart of the Sun.

When you are connected in this way, you create a vibration within you that is recognized by Mother Earth and by doing this you will have won the game of Life. As this dimensional change takes place, or when the pole shift occurs, you have nothing to do. Mother Earth knows you and will protect you under all circumstances for she knows and makes sure that you will be one of the survivors who will be part of the One Heart Beings that will begin the journey beyond the stars. Truly the Birth of a New Humanity is as simple and natural as it was when you were born into this world.

This is a time to be joyful and celebrate. When people worry about conspiracies and are in fear or hopelessness, hug them and let them feel your vibration. Your vibration of love combined with the love from Mother Earth is what heals the darkness of the soul.

Q What were the dates of the ceremony on Moorea and Sedona?

A The Moorea ceremony was held on January _____, 2008, and the final Sedona, Arizona ceremony was held on February _____, 2008. Both dates were lunar eclipses of the sun.

Q What about the Agartheans and the hollow earth? Will they help us?

A The inner earth is more alive than most know. In fact in the last two years, 2009 and 2010, even science is changing its mind about this possibility. All I can say now is that our understanding of the Agartheans is extremely limited, and yes, I believe that they will help more than any other race of beings - other than possibly the Sirians who are the ones who fathered our human race. The first ones I mentioned are what is called an "I.T." (Inner-Terrestrial) and the later is an E.T. (Extra-Terrestrial) coming from the star Sirius (Sirius B, third planet out).

The next presentation I am planning on giving to you (God willing) may be entirely around these beings that live inside the Earth. There is a wealth of information, actual video and photos of them, and a message that will lighten your heart. They are millions of years older than us, and they see us as their brothers and sisters and wish only to tell us something about who we really are. You can count on them to be by our side as we make this transformation.

Q If the grid is in place, does that mean that there will be no pole shift, or at least not a radical one, and that any transition will be much gentler?

A Only Mother Earth knows the true answer to that question. However, in my communication with her, I have asked her if the pole shift could be easier on life on the surface. She answered me by saying that all new life is born in violence, and this new birth of humanity is no different. There are reasons for this that are hard for humankind to accept or understand. All you have to do is look at a volcano exploding and you will see the source of new life emerging.

The Maya say that the last two pole shifts, approximately 13,000 years ago and 26,000 years ago, exactly where we are in the cycles now, were very difficult to live through. They remember. Atlantis sank in the most recent one with about 10,000,000 people dying in a single night so it is not for me to decide. Please speak with Mother Earth, and perhaps she may change her mind.

But regardless of her answer, if you want to be free of the violence, stay connected to Mother Earth's heart with your love, and YOU will know peace during this transition.

Again, don't worry about the outer world. It is going to be transformed just as you are going to be transformed, both inside and out. When this is over, YOU are going to be born into a new world, and life is going to begin anew.

Don't look at the darkness. Look only at the beauty all around you, see the love in the eyes of those you love, and YOU will emerge into a world of beauty and love. Be grateful for your life, and Life will be grateful for YOU.

I know there are many more questions, but I simply can't answer them all. If you want to know the answer to any question live within your heart, in the tiny space of your heart. Within this space is the answer to all questions.

I hope this presentation THE BIRTH OF A NEW HUMANITY helps you to remember who you are as you are being born into a wonderful new world.

Thank you for having the courage to follow your heart.

From my heart to yours,
Drunvalo
